

Special Request

1. Nepali Laws are officially published in Nepal Rajpatra (Gazette), therefore laws published in the Gazette are the Authentic one.
2. Nepali laws are published in Devnagari script. Translation in English Language is only for the convenience of the public.
3. Nepal Law Commission has tried to put laws in the website for the convenience of the public, therefore Commission or official thereof shall not be liable for any delay in posting or mistake occurred in posting or translation. But we shall always try our best for promptness and correctness.
4. Nepal Law Commission is not a advisory body, therefore we humbly request not to expect any legal advise from us.
5. Any organization or person may arrange for a link of our website but we do not allow to put our downloads in their website.
6. No one is permitted to sale our downloads in any manner and at any cost.
7. We request to all readers to advice us to correct any document or translation if any mistake found therein.
8. Please e-mail us in our following address for your kind suggestion.

E-mail: info@lawcommission.gov.np

Nepal Law Commission
Singha Durbar, Kathmandu
Nepal