7A.¹⁶ Same Landowner Indication Number can be given: The Land Revenue Department may make necessary provision in a manner that the same landowner indication number may be given to all lands in his or her name within the State of Nepal.

8.¹⁷ Registration, Transmission, Dakhil Kharej and striking out the Record: (1) The Land Revenue Office shall carry out the functions of registration, transmitting and crossing off the records of a deed pursuant to the prevailing laws.

(2) For the purposes of setting out the amount in a deed to be registered, the prescribed committee shall determine the minimum value of the land within the concerned area.

(3) In registering or transmitting the land based on the deed of compromise executed pursuant to the laws in force, the Land Revenue Office shall register or transmit such a land only when the previous registration, record or Numbari of the concerned land is verified.

(4) If an application is made by the concerned person for the registration of the land owned by a person for the public purposes, the Land Revenue Office may cross off the name of that person in relation to that land, on the recommendation of the prescribed committee.

(5) In the event of alteration in the records of the land subject to tenancy or to action of ceiling, the Land Revenue Office has to give a notice thereof to the Land Reform Office.

¹⁶ Inserted by the Fifth Amendment.

¹⁷ Amended by Fifth Amendment.

8A.¹⁸ To up-date Survey and Map: (1) If the survey and map has to be amended in accordance with the registration set pursuant to Sections 7 and 8, the Land Revenue Office has to write to the concerned ¹⁹Maintenance Survey Section; and after it has been so written, the ²⁰Maintenance Survey Section has to make necessary amendment to the survey and map.

8B.²¹ To Withhold or Release House and Land: (1) If any house or land has to be withheld owing to dispute thereof or for any other reason, the Land Revenue Office may withhold such a house or land.

(2) If any office, court or government office writes to withhold any house or land or to release the withholding of any house or land pursuant to the laws in force, the Land Revenue Office shall withhold or release such a house or land as so written.

(3) If any bank, financial institution established pursuant to the law in force or local body writes to withhold any house or land or to release the withholding of any house or land in the course of its financial transactions, the Land Revenue Office shall withhold or release such a house or land as prescribed. In so withholding or releasing the withholding, the Land Revenue Office shall collect the fees as prescribed, in the case of a bank or financial institution.

referred to in Section 11, the land revenue along with Five percent fee shall be recovered.

14. Inventory of Land in Respect Whereof Land Revenue is Due: The Land Revenue Office shall, no later than the ²⁷last day of Ashad (about mid July) prepare such inventory of the land in respect whereof the land revenue has not been paid and remained due even within the time limit ²⁸referred to in Section 13 as may be prescribed; and ²⁹if any government office or local body has collected land revenue, the government office or local body shall prepare such an inventory and forward it to the Land Revenue Office within that period. In cases where the land in respect whereof the land revenue as mentioned in that inventory has remained due ³⁰has to be auctioned off, the Land Revenue Office shall, no later than the ³¹last day of Ashwin (about mid October), publish a notice in the specified places.

15. Power to Withhold Land in Respect Whereof Land Revenue is Due: The land of a land holder in respect whereof the land revenue specified in the inventory as referred to in Section 14 is due may be withheld by the Land Revenue Office unless and until the remaining land revenue is paid up or the land is auctioned off to recover the arrears.

Provided that, the land holder may cultivate the land so withheld as usual.

16. To Auction Off Land: (1) The Land Revenue Office ³²may Auction off as prescribed, the plot of land out of the land in respect whereof the land revenue specified in the inventory as referred to in Section 14, in order to recover the land revenue.

³¹ Amended by Third Amendment.

³² Amended by First Amendment.

(2)³³ In cases where any land has to be auctioned it off pursuant to this Section, the act of such auction shall be started ³⁴from the month of Mangsir (about mid November).

(3) If no one agrees to buy the land while auctioning it off pursuant to Sub-section (1), the ownership of such land shall devolve on Government of Nepal; and the land of which ownership has devolved on Government of Nepal may be sold and disposed off as prescribed.

Provided that, in spite of devolution of ownership of such land on Government of Nepal, the tenancy right of the tenant over that land shall remain existing.

(4) Any amount remaining surplus by deducting the arrears of land revenue and a fee of Fifty percent thereof from the proceeds of the auction made under Sub-section (1) shall be refunded to the concerned land holder.

(5) The monitoring of and other provisions vis-a-vis the land of which ownership has been devolved on Government of Nepal pursuant to Sub-section (3) shall be as prescribed pending the sale and disposal of that land.

(6)³⁵ Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section, in cases where the land revenue is paid from the Sixteenth day of Ashad (about last day of June) to the completion of auction sale of the land, the Land Revenue Office shall recover the land revenue as well as the fee to be set by ³⁶Ten per cent per annum from such land holder.

³³ Amended by First Amendment.

³⁴ Amended by Third Amendment.

³⁵ Amended by First Amendment.

³⁶ Amended by Third Amendment.

Provided that, the land revenue shall be recovered by charging Thirty Five percent fee on the arrears of the land revenue prior to the commencement of this Sub-section.

17. Power to Extend Time-limit for Payment of Land Revenue: (1)

Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 11, if Government of Nepal thinks that there exists a situation in which the land revenue of any District or ³⁷any part of a District or of any person cannot be paid in any year within the time-limit as specified in that Section, it may, by notification published in the Nepal Gazette, extend the time limit for payment of the land revenue.

(2) In cases where the time-limit has been extended pursuant to Sub-section (1), actions referred to in Section 13, 14, 15 and 16 shall be taken only after expiration of the extended time-limit in ³⁸any part of the District where the time-limit has been extended and in such cases, the time-limit shall be set by adding according to time-limit of the number of days so extended to the time-limits as referred to in these Sections for taking out various acts and actions.

18. Provision of Receipt: The Land Revenue Office or ³⁹the government office or local body recovering the land revenue has to provide a receipt of the recovered land revenue to the payer of the land revenue.

19. Provision Relating to Recovery of Land Revenue of Land Beyond Ceiling: Pending the transferable, by sale or disposal, of the land beyond ceiling allowable under the Lands Act, 2021 (1962) after its being acquired by the concerned authority, the land revenue of the land subject to ownership and possession of the existing land holder shall be recovered from that land holder in a manner that land revenue has to be paid to Government of Nepal as usual.

Provided that, the land shall not be auctioned for arrears of land revenue in respect of such land but the arrears of land revenue shall be deducted from compensation to which the land holder is entitled.

Chapter - 5

Provisions Relating to Remission of Land Revenue

- 20. Remission of Land Revenue in Cases of River Cutting or Landslide: (1) If any land subject to land revenue is corded by the river or stream, or becomes silted or affected by landslide or is covered with landslide and becomes incapable of yielding major crops, the concerned landholder has to make an application setting out details thereof to the Land Revenue Office in such format and within such time-limit as may be prescribed.

Provided that, in the case of the land having standing crops, the crops should not be harvested prior to holding inquiry pursuant to Sub-section (2).

(2) The Chief of Land Revenue Office has to hold inquiry into the matters set down in an application made pursuant to Sub-section (1) by visiting the spot in person or dispatching a mission within Thirty days. If, in holding such inquiry, it appears to grant remission of the land revenue for that year, the Land Revenue Office has to ascertain by how much percentage of the land revenue has to be remitted, remit the same and give information thereof to the Land Revenue Department within Seven days.

(3) If it appears from the inquiry as referred to in Sub-section (2) that any land has become useless forever, the Land Revenue Office shall make a submission to Government of Nepal to cross off the inventory of that land, and Government of Nepal shall, if it deems reasonable, order the Land Revenue Office to cross off the inventory of that land.

21. Remission of Land Revenue in case of Non-yielding of Crops

Owing to Drought or Other Natural Calamity: (1) If the ⁴⁰major crops are destroyed in any area in any year owing to drought or hailstone or grass hopper or flood or any other natural calamity, the Land Revenue Office may, if it deems it necessary to remit land revenue fully or partly, upon holding necessary inquiry, make a submission, along with its opinion, to Government of Nepal.

(2) If submission is made pursuant to Sub-section (1) or if Government of Nepal comes to know such situation in any manner, ⁴¹..... Government of Nepal shall remit such land revenue as may be deemed necessary.

Chapter -6

Provisions Relating to Functions, Duties and Obligations of Collecting Land Revenue

22. ⁴² Power to exercise the powers pursuant to this Act: In recovering land revenue pursuant to Sub-section (2) of Section 9, any government office or local body may, pursuant to this Act and the Rules framed under this Act, also exercise all powers available to the Land Revenue Office, other than the power to auction sell land.

⁴⁰ Amended by Third Amendment

⁴¹ Deleted by Finance Related Some Nepal Acts (Amendment) Act, 2047

⁴² Amended by Fifth Amendment.

- 23.⁴³ To bear amount in question of loss and damage: If Government of Nepal or anyone else suffers from any kind of loss or damage as a result of any act committed by the person collecting the land revenue in contrary to this Act or any other prevailing Nepal Law in collecting the land revenue knowingly or with ulterior motive, the person designated in the recovery of land revenue has to bear the amount in question of such loss and damage or other liability. If the amount of land revenue so collected is subject to loss and damage, action shall also be taken against him or her pursuant to the laws in force.

Chapter -7

Provision Relating to Cultivation of Land

- 24.⁴⁴ Prohibition on Registration or Cultivation of Public or Governmental Land: (1) No one shall register in his or her name or cultivate, or cause to be registered or cultivated, any governmental land or public land.

Provided that, nothing contained in this Sub-section shall be deemed to prevent the making provision by the Government of Nepal of a public land for public purposes and a governmental land for any purpose that the Government of Nepal deems appropriate.

(2) Where any person has registered any public land or governmental land in his or her name and cultivated it prior to or after the commencement of this Section, such registration shall ipso facto be void. The Land Revenue Office or an authority specified by Government of Nepal shall cross off the registration of such land standing in the name of any person.

⁴³ Amended by Fifth Amendment

⁴⁴ Amended by Fifth Amendment

(3) The concerned Land Revenue Office shall register the governmental land and the public land and update the records as prescribed.

25. Prohibition on Cultivation or non-registered Land not Registered:

No one shall cultivate or cause to be cultivated the land which has not been registered.

Provided that, this Section shall not be deemed to prevent such land from being cultivated after the committee prescribed pursuant to Section 26 has given approval to cultivate the land or after the land has been sold and distributed in accordance with the prevailing Nepal law relating to resettlement.

26. Cultivation of not Registered Land by Obtaining Approval: (1)

Approval has to be obtained from the prescribed committee to cultivate any not registered land.

(2) Application has to be made to the prescribed committee for approval to cultivate the not registered land.

(3) Only those persons who have not any land of their own up to the prescribed ceiling as tenants or land holders shall be entitled to make application pursuant to Sub-section (2).

(4) Subject to this Act and the Rules, the prescribed committee framed under this Act and other prevailing Nepal law may grant approval to the persons as referred to in Sub-section (3) to cultivate the not registered land.

(5) In granting approval by the prescribed committee pursuant to Sub-section (4), the terms for cultivation of such land and the fee therefor shall be as prescribed.

Provided that,-

- (a) Nothing contained in this Section shall empower such committee to grant approval to cultivate any land prohibited from being cultivated or registered pursuant to ⁴⁵Sub-section (1) of Section 24.
- (b) The prescribed committee shall not grant approval to any person to cultivate any land incapable of being registered as cultivated presently in the name of such person for any reason.
- (c) If more than one person makes an application for approval to cultivate any land, approval shall be granted according to the priority as prescribed.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section, if settlement is to be made in the land of any area, Government of Nepal may get the land within the specified ceiling sold and distributed pursuant to the prevailing Nepal law relating to resettlement.

(7) In granting approval by the prescribed committee to cultivate the land or selling or distributing the land for settlement pursuant to Sub-section (6), the prescribed committee or the concerned authority shall get such land registered.

(8) The Land Revenue Office shall implement the decision or order made by the concerned committee or authority under this Section in such manner as prescribed.

⁴⁵ Deleted by Fifth Amendment.
